Little Learners Prep School

If your child doesn't meet the age requirement for preschool, but is ready for a two day a week preschool experience, this is the class for him. Participants will take part in fun activities designed for the 2½ to 3 year old child, with special emphasis on socialization, sharing, and cooperative play. Children will be exposed to a consistent, loosely structured routine revolving around games, crafts, stories, and free play. This is a great introduction to any preschool routine, and should give your child a positive glimpse of just how much fun school can be! Parents, since this is a two day a week class, we ask that you be confident that your child is ready to separate from you.
