Music Together

Did you know that all children are musical? Music Together offers a fun, engaging, and musically diverse experience for you and your child. Activities focus on adult/child interaction and will have your family singing, dancing, and laughing together! Experience shows that musical development benefits from early exposure, so nurture your child's natural enthusiasm for music and movement! Tuition includes: illustrated songbook, a Parent's Guide to Music and Their Child, two CDs, and 10 fun-filled weeks of movement and music! Additional siblings under 8 months are free! For those that took Music Together last year, new songs will be presented and new fun for all!

Jump Start Art

Toddlers love to touch and learn! Activities in this “hands on” class will keep you and your little one busy by using water paints, play dough, glue, and more. Since little ones learn best by doing, this exposure to art media will help develop artistic skills as well as fine motor and eye-hand coordination. Each class will conclude with some play time for the toddlers and social time for the parents. Come and have fun with your toddler while you help them get a jump start on art. Since this class requires full parental participation, siblings will not be allowed in the classroom.
